Eight area girls' swim/dive teams competed yesterday evening at the Ann Arbor Huron Ratatorium for the annual Huron Relays. The excitement of the first competition of the season was evident, and more than one parent remarked that the noise level rivalled that of a Justin Bieber concert.

The eight teams included AA Huron, AA Skyline, AA Pioneer, So. Lyon, Saline, Brighton, Dexter and Northville. While Saline took first place with 468 points, only 42 points separated the 2nd (AA Skyline with 370) from the 5th place teams (AA Huron/AA Pioneer, tied at 328), promising an exciting season of swim/dive action in Southeast Michigan.

The Huron River Rats started out the meet with a powerful 2nd place finish in the 200 Medley Relay, featuring senior/captains Anna Li Aguirre and Dany Kotlyar, and juniors Anna Riegger and Adela Baker. Their 1:53:75 time earned them a D1 state cut. The "B" 200 Medley Relay team (senior Shely Redding, freshman Jewel Huang, senior Sarah Wang and freshman Elaina Baker) also finished 2nd in their heat (2:02:26).

Both Huron teams again looked strong in the 200 Breaststroke Relay, with the "A" squad (Kotlyar, freshman Laura Deng, junior Annabelle St. Pierre, and Wang) finishing 4th (2:18:81), and the "B" (juniors Alice Deng and Kate Monnett, with sophomores Katy Stegemann and Spring Gao) clocking in a very close 2nd (2:31:66) to Saline's winning relay (2:31:35).

In the Diving Event, sophomore standout Izzy Holcomb, together with freshman Morgen Heisenbuettel took 2nd place.

The Swimming Rats are coached for a second year by Andrea Stanczyk with long-time assistant JZ Zakjrsek, while Brad Huttenga continues to coach the divers in perpetuity. The team will be led on deck by captains Kotlyar, Aguirre and senior Mary Claire Chamberlain. With the addition of a strong group of freshmen, the aquatic year is looking bright for the River Rats.

September 3rd, 2014

WRITTEN BY: MARGARET BAKER
PICTURES BY: HURON PARENTS

Although it was just the first dual meet of the season, the Huron's Girls' Swim & Dive Team looked strong and confident tonight with their decisive 112-74 win over Hartland. Congratulations are in order for junior Kathy Pan, who added two State Cuts to her resume, in the 100 Free (54.35) and the 200 IM (2:13:28); and for captain/senior Dany Kotlyar, who secured a State Cut with her win in the 100 Breast (1:08:99).

The meet opened with two strong 200 Medley relay teams taking 1st (junior Anna Riegger, Kotlyar, freshman Laura Deng and junior Adela Baker) in 1:57:22 and 3rd (senior Shely Redding, freshman Jewel Huang, senior Sarah Wang and junior Abby Dittmar) in 2:04:18. Senior/captain Anna Li Aguirre won the 200 Free easily with her MISCA cut time of 2:05:60, followed by senior/captain teammate Mary Claire Chamberlain in 2nd (2:09:13).

The Rats dominated the IM with Pan's win, and Huron swimmers in 2nd --Huang (2:18:62) and 3rd --Kotlyar (2:20:52). In the 50 Free, juniors Dittmar (MISCA cut time of 26.50) and A. Baker (26.70) earned 2nd and 3rd place berths, while Riegger (1:03:27) and L. Deng (1:05:17) dominated the 100 Fly in 1st and 2nd, with Wang (1:13:79) adding to her point total with a 5th place finish.

Huron also scored three top 5 swimmers in the 100 Free, Pan, A. Baker (59.23) in 4th and Chamberlain (59.80) in 5th. Freshman Claire Deng came in an impressive 2nd in the 500 Free (5:48:81), and both the "A" and "B" 200 Free Relays made MISCA cuts, Baker, Aguirre, Dittmar, and Pan, 2nd (1:45:10), and L. Deng, Wang, Chamberlain and Kotlyar, 3rd (1:50:59).

Huang (1:04:42), Riegger (1:04:72), and Aguirre (1:05:46) were 2, 3 and 4 in the 100 Back, and Kotlyar, with her State Cut, L. Deng (1:13:72), and Wang (1:17:98) went 1, 2, 3 in the 100 Breast. In the final event of the night, the 400 Free Relay, both Huron "A" (Riegger, Chamberlain, Dittmar, and Pan) and "B" (Huang, junior Sarah Gargan, freshman Sophie Flott, and C. The River Rats faced a fast, deep team of Dreadnaughts on Saturday, Sept. 6, losing 127-59. In the swimming portion of the meet, no events went Huron's way, beginning with the 200 Medley Relay, where the Huron "A" (captain/senior Anna Li Aguirre, Junior Kathy Pan, captain/senior Dany Kotlyar and junior Abby Dittmar), touching at 1:57:89 was just edged out of 2nd place by Dexter's "B" squad (1:57:20).

Individual 2nd place finishers for the Rats included Kotlyar in the 100 Fly (1:06:20) and Pan in the 50 Free (26.06). Pan was also 3rd in the 100 Breast (1:10:31), followed by Kotlyar in 4th (1:11:08) and junior Anna Riegger in 5th (1:14:90). Junior Adela Baker took two 3rd place finishes, in the 200 Free (2:09:01) and the 100 Free, where she earned her MISCA cut (58.16). Riegger also earned her MISCA cut in the 200 IM (2:20:71) with a 3rd place finish.

Both Free Relays swam MISCA times and were strong enough to take 2nd over Dexter's "B" squads. The 200 Free line-up (Baker, freshman Laura Deng, Dittmar, and Pan) clocked in at 1:48:24, and the 400 Free squad (Baker, captain/senior Mary Claire Chamberlain, freshman Jewel Huang and Dittmar) easily bested Dexter's "B" with a time of 4:02:31.

The real celebration for the day, however, came in the diving well, where all four River Rat divers rocked the meet. Sophomore Izzy Holcomb, in her second dual meet win in three days, scored an impressive 257.20 points. Junior Georgia Plagens was 2nd with a personal best score of 214.05. Huron vs South Lyon

September 11th, 2014

Yesterday evening the Huron River Rats showed their tenacity with an exciting win over So. Lyon, 95-91. On the swimming side, the Rats revealed great depth and strong performances by this year's freshmen.

Although the opening 200 Medley Relay "A" team of senior/captains Anna Li Aguirre and Dany Kotlyar, and juniors Anna Riegger and Adela Baker (1:56:56) was disappointingly just touched out by So. Lyon (1:56:10), the 200 Free Relay, swum by Junior Kathy Pan, freshman Laura Deng, and juniors Abby Dittmar and Baker (1:45:89), proved an easy three-seconds-to spare win over So. Lyon.

Continuing their excellence in Breaststroke, the Rats went 1, 2, 3 in the 100 Breast—Pan (1:09:49); L. Deng (1:12:80) and freshman Jewel Huang (1:14:66); and the 200 IM: Huang (2:17:45); Kotlyar (2:21:58); and L. Deng (2:21:85). In the 100 Back, junior Anna Riegger (1:04:44) had a comfortable win, with teammate senior Shely Redding (1:09:38) in 3rd, and in the 100 Fly, Riegger (1:04:39) and Kotlyar (1:06:31) took 2nd and 4th respectively.

In the Freestyle events, Huron excelled, as 1st and 3rd place honors went to Pan (2:01:06) and senior/captain Mary Claire Chamberlain (2:10:08) in the 200, and Baker (26.32) and Dittmar (26.41) swam for 2nd and 3rd in the 50, as did Dittmar (57.29) and Chamberlain (1:00:58) in the 100. Aguirre was 2nd in the 500 (5:35:22), just behind So. Lyon's Emily Kososki (5:34:41).

All four Huron divers dove well against the strong South Lyon team. Sophomore Izzy Holcomb came in 2nd with a score of 242.20. The rest of the dive team all tried new dives at the meet, boosting their scores with higher degrees of difficulty. Junior Georgia Plagens, trying out Dive 5132D, a forward 1 ½ somersault 1 twist (D.D. 2.2), took 4th with 205.80, while Senior Katherine Wardner executed a 403C, an inward 1 1/2 somersault, (D.D. 2.2) and dove for 7th place and Freshman Morgen Heissenbuetel debuted a 105, a front 2 1/2 somersault (D.D. 2.4) and ended in 8th, with 166.55 points.

It certainly will not be the last pool record that sophomore diver Izzy Holcomb breaks as a Rat, but it was her first. Yesterday evening in Jackson, with a score of 245.95, Holcomb won the diving event and broke the Jackson pool record for points in a dual meet. The record had been previously held by Huron alum Molly Gelb. Huron divers also took the 3rd and 4th spots, with junior Georgia Plagens scoring 199.4 and senior Katherine Wardner earning 172.25. Diving in exhibition, freshman Morgen Heissenbuettel scored 134.1.

In the swimming events, Huron dominated as well. They opened by winning the 200 Medley Relay (senior Shely Redding, senior/captain Dany Kotlyar, junior Kathy Pan, and freshman Laura Deng) in 2:00:60, and placing 3rd with the “B” squad (freshmen Jewel Huang and Claire Deng, junior Adela Baker, and senior/captain Mary Claire Chamberlain) in 2:06:71.

The 200 Free Relay “A” and “B” teams finished 1st and 2nd, with junior Abby Dittmar, captain/senior Anna Li Aguirre, and juniors Pan and Baker touching at 1:47:82, and juniors Anna Riegger, Alice Deng, Annabelle St. Pierre and sophomore Kirby Gardner clocking in at 1:55:21. Captain/senior Aguirre easily won the 200 IM (2:25:27), with teammate Dittmar in 3rd (2:33:94) and junior Sarah Gargan in 5th (2:38:79); Pan took 1st in the 100 Free (55.79), followed by Gardner in 4th (1:03:72); and Riegger handily won the 100 Breast (1:15:42), while freshman C. Deng finished 3rd (1:20:79), and junior Kate Monnett (1:24:58) took 5th place.

The Rats’ Distance swimmers had a banner night, with L. Deng winning the 500 Free (5:43:57), followed by Kotlyar (5:56:25) in 2nd and sophomore Katy Stegemann (16:31:25) in 4th. The Rats also scored three swimmers in the 200 Free with Riegger (2:08:62) in 2nd, A. Deng (2:17:80) in 3rd and junior Helen Miller (2:41:89) in 5th place. In the evening’s closing event, the 400 Free Relay, both “A” and “B” teams brought in points for the Rats with Dittmar, L. Deng, Baker and Pan in 1st (3:57:33) and Kotlyar, Flott, Gargan and freshman Elaina Baker (4:20:40) in 3rd. When everything was tallied, Huron was the victor by a score of 113-73.

The Huron Girls' Swim/Dive Team won a decisive SEC Conference victory yesterday evening against visiting Temperance/Bedford. While the Bedford swimmers put in some strong performances, especially Lexi Marok, who won the 100 Breast (1:13:35) and the 200 IM (2:29:13), they were no match for the Rats overall.

The "B" relay of freshman Laura Deng, senior Sarah Wang, junior Adela Baker and freshman Sophie Flott were 3rd (2:09:80). Among eight deep teams on the board and in the water, the River Rats took a confident 3rd place at this weekend's Pioneer Classic in East Grand Rapids. Completing 11 dives for the first time, Junior Georgia Plagens finished 7th (336.85), senior Katherine Wardner was 23rd (258.65) and freshman Morgen Heisenbuettel, also competing in her first 11-dive meet, scored 235.80 for 25th place.

Huron Water Polo Invite September 18th, 2014

The Ann Arbor Huron boys water polo team defeated rival Ann Arbor Pioneer 9-6 in game one of the Huron Invite. Ann Arbor Huron's Holden Tamblyn scored three times, while Eli Cohen added two himself.

The game took an interesting turn when Gottliebsen received a yellow card for intruding on the referee's personal space. Both schools know each other well, and the intensity of the game reflected that.

The game was pretty back and forth in the first half," Huron coach Mike Gottliebsen said. "But we had a nice set of counter-attacks. Our goalie made a few good saves to break up Pioneers counter-attack. We had great team defense and ball movement."

Friday's game was a rematch, as both teams played Wednesday in a 7-4 victory for Pioneer. Huron and Pioneer entered today's matchup ranked third and second in the state, respectively.
